Dear Sir:

Pasadena Independent School District filed an appeal with the FCC on Funding Request Numbers: 1477031, 1477084, 1477132, and 1477357 on November 16, 2006. We never received a decision on our appeal from the FCC, so on June 28 I called the FCC and talked to Mr. James Bachtell. He stated that there was no record at your office of the appeal ever being received. I am resubmitting a copy of the original appeal letters along with a copy of the certified receipt from your office signed by B. Pettiford and dated November 21, 2006. Please review our appeal letters and grant a decision as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Marianne Junco
Accountant

Letter of Appeal
FCC
Office of the Secretary

Washington, DC 20554

Dear Sir:

This letter is to appeal the decision from the USAC dated September 19, 2006. The appellant name is Pasadena Independent School District. The service provider is SBC Long Distance, SPIN 143008823. Pasadena Independent School District BEN number is 141312. This appeal is regarding Form 471 Application Number 531600, Funding Commitment Decision Letter for funding Year 2006. The Funding Commitment Decision Explanation for FRN 1477031 states that the 28 day waiting period was violated and that a contract for new service was signed prior to the required 28-day waiting period computed from the date of the posting of the Form 470 to the SLD Web Site.

Due to a clerical error, the service was filed as month-to-month. It should have referred back to the previous year's 470. Thank you for allowing Pasadena Independent School District this right to appeal. We await your decision.

Should you have any questions, please call.

Sincerely,

John M. Piscacek
Associate Superintendent for Finance
